

Staffing eTrainer to Showcase New Courses and Learning Plans at Staffing World 2013

ATLANTA, Ga. – September 17, 2013 – Staffing eTrainer today announced it will be participating in ASA's Staffing World 2013 Convention & Expo in Orlando, October 8-10. Staffing World is the largest conference for the staffing industry bringing together professionals from all over the nation.

According to Amy Munroe, COO of Staffing eTrainer, "Staffing World is always a great experience for Staffing eTrainer. It allows us to meet new industry professionals and reconnect with our long term partners. We are excited to be previewing our updated courses and new content." The updated courses include staffing industry specific content relevant for today's ever changing staffing landscape.

Donna Mallard, CEO of Staffing eTrainer is enthusiastic about the new course offerings. "In addition to the recent course updates, we've added a Branch Manager learning plan to go along with the Staffing Consultant and Business Development plans. Our goal is to provide content that makes a positive impact on the performance of the staffing team!"

Staffing eTrainer will be located in Booth #728.
